

Lifesavers — in bikinis

● Right: Lisa Williams, Heather Goater and Suzanne Hodges on duty at Bulcock Beach, Caloundra.

The girls are members of the Ithaca Life Saving Club from the Royal Life Society. Based in Brisbane, it is a mixed club and the branch at Bulcock Beach is on duty every weekend from late November until early February and during other main holiday periods.

The branch welcomes any local members and will train them to be fully qualified lifesavers.

Major road works

Member for Loddon, Mr. Steve Brown, has announced that the Main Roads Department work on the junction of Horton Parade and Maroochydore Road, Maroochydore, has been released by the Main Roads Department and will proceed soon.

The work involves drainage, paving, bituminous concrete surfacing, channelisation and overhead lighting at the intersection of the roads.

The work will be carried out by day labor by the Maroochy Shire Council.
