

HERE AND THERE

HELP Brisbane Girls Grammar raise money for the Smith Family with a gold coin donation at their performance of Schubert's Mass No 2 in G major, St Stephen's Cathedral, Thursday. 7.30pm

ABBA karaoke at the Plough Inn from 8pm to 1am on Friday to celebrate 30 years since their hit Waterloo. Free. Best costume prize.

CALOUNDRA'S Ithaca Life Saving Club celebrates 50 years of patrolling Bulcock Beach on May 22 with a celebration lunch. Ph: 0409 878 089.

FORENSIC SCIENCE

THE Bone Woman author and forensic anthropologist, Clea Koff, will speak about gathering evidence of genocide for the UN War Crimes Tribunal, Monday, 6.30pm at the Avid Reader Bookshop, 193 Boundary St, West End. Ph: 3846 3422.

Compiled by Lisa Yallamas.

Got an event coming up? Fax your information to (07) 3666 6690 or e-mail Lisa Yallamas on yallamasl@qnp.newstld.com.au

EDITORIAL INQUIRIES: 3666 6338 or 3666 6286

ADVERTISING: Tony Redwood 3666 6117

PRODUCTION: Colin Wood

The Courier-Mail Saturday, April 17, 2004

FRST

* * *

ITHACA Caloundra City Life Saving Club will celebrate 50 years of patrolling Bulcock Beach with a special day of celebrations on Saturday, May 22.

The club is searching for past members to return to their club for lunch, sharing of lifesaving stories and reminiscing over memorabilia and a new Honour Board.

A Limited Edition commemorative wine will be available in addition to many other souvenirs.

For further information about the celebrations or to book contact president Helen Morris on 0409 878 089 or 3366-4860 after 5 pm.

* * *