

DRAGGED TO SAFETY

DENISE Venning (left), dragged "patient" Lorraine Jay to safety with a "hair carry" in the Royal Life Saving Society's championships at Ithaca Baths last night. The pair tied for first place in the Queensland women's pairs and Denise was first and Lorraine second in the women's individual championships.

Brother and sister star

Brother and sister won individual titles at the Royal Life Saving championships last night.

They are Ross and Denise Venning, of Ithaca.

They were also members of the winning men's and women's pairs.

Results.—Men's pairs: R. Venning, L. Logan (Ithaca), 1; A. Hoy, P. Martin (Moreton Bay), 2; A. Fritsch, E. Masterton (Langlands), 3. Women's pairs: L. Jay, D. Venning (Ithaca) and A. Russell, J. Forbes (St. Margarets), 1; L. Temley, L. Edwards (Somerville House), 3. Men's individual championship: R. Venning (Ithaca), 1; L. Logan (Ithaca), 2; G. Brameld (E.G.S.), 3. Women's individual championship: D. Venning (Ithaca), 1; L. Jay (Ithaca), 2; J. Woodmass (Federals), 3. Boys' Primary school relay: C.E.-G.S., 1; Milton, 2; Sandgate, 3. Girls' Primary school relay: Ironside, 1; Somerville House, 2; Nundah, 3.