

Around Town

You can say you saw music!

IF YOU HAVE never heard a saw used as a musical instrument, the Family Fun Music Afternoon at Mt Crosby on June 20 will be a revelation.

Organiser Gwen Stumer of Mt Crosby said the afternoon will include music by a 75-year-old saw player from Bundaberg, Harry Raisbeck.

The Silver Wattle Band — Merv Jeynes, Jim Laws, Morrie McGuire, David Shepherd and Jeannie Hogg — will be playing and will be joined by about 25 other country musicians.

By ROBYN BUCHANAN

Mrs Stumer said all the musicians were giving their time free to raise funds for a new lifesaving clubhouse.

Mrs Stumer's daughter Catherine, 15, is a member of the Ithaca Lifesaving club which patrols Bulcock Beach, Caloundra.

Members live mainly in Ipswich and Brisbane and have to travel up to the coast every weekend. A new club house is needed and at least $50,000 has to be raised.

Family Fun Afternoon starts at 1pm and activities will include pony rides, hay rides on a horse-drawn vehicle and craft demonstrations. The day will conclude with a barbeque.

Admission is $8 adults, children under 14 $4 including the barbeque tea. For inquiries, phone Mrs Stumer 201 0126.
