Sunshine Coast Council has designated two parking bays adjacent to the Clubhouse, for Life Savers use. This policy, details the Clubs internal procedures in respect to the bay.

Application

This Policy Statement applies to:

- all members, and/or
- any person authorised by the Club to park in the Life Savers Parking Bay.

Underlying Assumptions

The Life Savers Parking Bay are under complete control of Sunshine Coast Council ("SCC"), and whilst the Club may set policies and procedures around the Parking Bay, the rules and regulations of SCC override any policy or procedures as set by the Club.

Policy Statements

Definitions	Club Business means any of the following activities during the Clubs Operational Hours: • Patrol Duties (including setting up and packing away) • Attending Official Club Meetings • Attending to a Rescue or Emergency Action • Attending to an after hours call out (on any day or time) • Re-stocking and deliveries to the Club Club Operational Hours includes all weekends and public holidays during the summer season. Approved Parking Signs: are magnetic stickers that are applied to car doors and the rear of each car that is parked in the Life Savers Parking Bay. Sample signs are show below:  Small Car Magnet Sticker for Car Rear  Large Car Magnetic Sticker for Car Door
Authority to use	Members of the Club, may use the Life Savers Parking Bay whilst conducting Club Business, providing they display Approved Parking Signs. The use of the bay is limited to short term use (less than 24 hours) only.
Priority of Use	The Life Savers Parking Bays may be used by members or authorised persons in the following priority: 1.) Sunshine Coast Council (i.e. subcontract Lifeguard Service) 2.) Members of the Club and partner organisations who are undertaking a rescue or emergency action

	3.) For parking of any Vehicle owned by the Club 4.) The Designated Patrol Captain for a particular patrol (during that patrol only) 5.) The Club Captain whilst undertaking Club Business 6.) Any other member of the Club whilst undertaking Club Business
Reasonable Variations	Members are to act reasonably at all times, for instance: • If two (or more) members are seeking to park in the Bay, and they are of equal priority, then the member who was in the Bay first may remain in the Bay. • If both Bays are full and a nearby ordinary parking Bay is vacant, members are to park in the nearby ordinary Bay, even if that member is of higher rank (i.e. Patrol Captain, Club Captain, etc). • Members of the Club are to follow all instruction of Clubs Officers and if requested to move their vehicle from the bay for any reason, must do so immediately without argument.
Policing	Members are not Police Officers or Council Law Enforcement Officers and are not to police parking laws. If a member of the public (accidentally or not) parks in a Life Savers Parking Bay, they may politely remind the person that the Bay is reserved for Life Savers, however are not to take any further action.
Complaints	Members are not to lodge complaints in respect to parking with Lifeguards, Sunshine Coast Council or Queensland Police without permission of the Clubs Management Committee.
Disputes	If any dispute arises in respect of a Life Savers Parking Bay, such is to be raised to the Club Captain who will make a ruling; the Clubs Captain's decision is final.
Parking Infringement Notice	If a member is issued a parking infringement notice they are to provide a copy to the Club Captain within seven (7) days and provide a sworn written statement of the facts in respect to the notice. The Club will undertake an internal review, and if the Club is satisfied this policy has been complied with, the Club will seek Council to withdraw the Notice. If the Club is not satisfied that this policy has been precisely complied with, the member will be liable for payment of the parking infringement notice.
Disclaimer	• The Club will not be liable for any parking infringement notice if a member does not strictly follow this policy and any applicable laws. • The Club will not be liable for any parking infringement notice or any other liability whatsoever, for any person who is not a member of the Club. • The Club is not liable for any damage or loss to any vehicle (or any person associated with any vehicle) as a result of using the Life Savers Parking Bay. This includes loss or damage as a result of any fine, theft, collision, scratches, etc.

This policy may be amended or withdrawn at any time.
